

RGS Library Tour

Monday 4.30 -6.00pm

Tuesday 4.30-6.00pm

Choose one of the sessions only

The Royal Geographical Society of South Australia is kindly opening its Library and vast collection of antique, rare and current books, maps, photographs and geographical memorabilia. This one and a half hour tour will highlight some of the rarest pieces in the collection, normally not available for public viewing. You can leisurely look at the collection and be hosted by members of the RGS with drinks and nibbles. (50 places available each night)
Enrol for this session when you register online.

For more information

<http://www.rgssa.org.au>